SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Isaiah 40:1-5, 9-11; "Comfort, give comfort to my people."

2 Peter 3: 8-14 The day of the Lord will be unexpected.

Mark 1:1-8 The Baptist foretells the Messiah's coming.

Today's readings urge us to prepare for and be open to God's presence in our lives. We have been taught that this presence is ongoing, yet it doesn't always seem so. We need to work to overcome fear and doubt, especially in challenging times, but the task need not be a frantic effort. These readings carry warnings and longings, but the operative words are comfort, tenderness and hope. We wait and prepare because of the promise.

2018 Offertory Envelopes

The 2018 Offertory Envelopes are now available in the Church Hall. The envelope boxes are arranged by envelope number. If you do not remember your envelope number, there are binders available, listing the names in alphabetical order and the corresponding envelope number on the left hand side.

We request parishioners to kindly check that the information on the label is current and accurate. If there are any changes, please inform the Parish Office.

We invite all families who are new to the parish to come and register as parishioners and avail of the boxed envelopes for regular offertory donations.

N.B. Please do not use previous year's envelopes in the new year. If you did not use your envelopes at all during the year and you do not find one for you, please come to the Parish Office, and we will gladly issue a new one for your use.

Sign-up Sheets – Church Ministries

Once more, we look forward to the assistance of our different ministries for our Christmas celebration; e.g., lectors, Eucharistic ministers, altar servers and ushers. We have sign-up sheets available in the sacristy and (for the ushers) in the ushers' room. Kindly sign-up for the mass where you can assist, so that we can plan our masses accordingly.
