THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Nehemiah 8: 2-4a, 5-6, 8-10 Ezra reads the law to the postexilic Jewish community.

1 Corinthians 12: 12-30 The baptized community is like one body with many parts.

Luke 1: 1-4; 4: 14-21 Jesus announces his mission to bring good news.

Israel was sustained throughout countless struggles by God's word revealed in the law. We Christians do not identify ourselves by the same criterion, but by a larger sense of law disclosed by Jesus, the living revelation of God. His ministry proclaimed a new law rooted in love that is lived out on behalf of others. A liberating law, it requires a searing focus and discipline by us as individuals and as a community. Providentially, the same Spirit that animated Jesus animates us.

Daily Readings Now Available Online

Parishioners throughout the Archdiocese of Toronto can now find the Canadian daily readings by going to <https://readings.livingwithchrist.ca>

Securing access to these online readings for the day, thanks to the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops - including the First reading, Second reading (when appropriate), Psalm and Gospel Reading - is significant because the vast majority of daily readings online are from the United States Lectionary. There are some key differences between the American and Canadian Lectionary in translations, the arrangements of some readings and feast days, as well as some difference in the instructions for readers. By partnering with Living with Christ, we are ensuring website visitors will find the same readings they would hear in the local parish Mass

World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life

On Saturday February 2nd, the church celebrates the World Day for Consecrated Life.

In the Archdiocese of Toronto we are blessed to have living and serving among us more than 900 consecrated men and women. The World Day for Consecrated Life is a wonderful opportunity for us to thank God for the gifts of these sisters, virgins, brothers and priests and to pray for God's blessing upon them in their efforts to faithfully live the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity and obedience.

Bishop Wayne Kirkpatrick will preside at a special Mass, on Sunday 3rd February, at 3:00 pm at St. Paul's Basilica, Toronto in celebration of the vocation and witness of these special men and women, who are such a vital and important part of the life and ministry of the Church in our archdiocese. All are welcome to attend.

This is a perfect opportunity for us to keep in prayer and thank our fellow parishioners, The Sisters of the Good Sheppard congregation for their lifelong work and dedication to Consecrated Life.
